

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

- against -

KEVIN ALLER,

Defendant.

00-cr-977 (JGK)
11-cv-9089 (JGK)

ORDER

JOHN G. KOELTL, District Judge:

The Court has received the attached letter from the defendant again seeking compassionate release. The Court recently denied an earlier application for compassionate release without prejudice. The Court noted that it had reduced the defendant's sentence under the First Step Act to a point that was consistent with the section 3553(a) factors and that no further reduction was warranted. The defendant does not explain how those factors have changed in the brief period after the Court reduced the defendant's sentence. Moreover, before considering a renewed application, the defendant is required to exhaust his administrative remedies by making an application to the Bureau of Prisons for such relief and waiting at least 30 days to see if his application is granted.

The defendant does raise questions about whether his alleged physical complaints are being cared for by the Bureau of Prison. Therefore, the Government is requested to report to the Court on the defendant's physical condition and what is being done about the defendant's complaints.

The Court notes that the Federal Defenders were appointed to represent the defendant in connection with an application under the First Step Act but not with respect to the application for compassionate release. But the Federal Defenders are being copied on this order.

The defendant's renewed application for compassionate release is denied without prejudice to renewal.

SO ORDERED.
